THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- 25X1 1. [redacted] the deportations carried
25X1 out by the Soviets in the Baltic States in the period March - July 1949
25X1 indicates that the action was taken against two particular categories of 25X1 individuals:
25X1 a. Those known to have family members in the partisan movement;
25X1 those known or suspected of possessing information concerning 25X1 the identities of such partisans or their activities; and those 25X1 suspected of aiding the partisans by providing shelter and food.
25X1 b. Those who actively or passively oppose the collectivization 25X1 program being promoted in the Baltic States. In fact, many 25X1 persons who merely did not indicate enthusiasm for the program were included as innocent victims in this group.
2. This general pattern is understood to be the basis for the deportations throughout the Baltic States.
3. [redacted] "several hundred" individuals were deported
from the vicinity of Tallinn, Estonia. [redacted]
